

Bio

David L. McConico, MDIV, MBA, CBDA

David L. McConico has a depth and breadth of knowledge and experience in strategic planning, accounting, finance, and investment management. David is a fiduciary and an investment professional.

David has served as a trustee for City of Aurora's General Employees' Retirement Plan since 1994 and is actively involved in the investment decision making process for this defined benefit public pension plan with assets more than $600 million.

He has been an invited speaker at many investment conferences in the United States on subjects including asset allocation, investment strategy, emerging managers, emerging markets, real estate, private equity, and Digital Assets. David's experience as a former Certified Financial Planner and Certified Public Accountant add to his insights and knowledge base.

He is the founder and chairman of the Financial Education and Economic Transformation Center, a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization providing economic empowerment opportunities to youth and households in underserved communities since 2002.

David is an Investment Banking and General Principal (Series 24) and a Private Securities Representative (Series 63, 79, and 82) investment professional with Golden Eagle Securities, Inc a FINRA member Broker/Dealer Investment Bank specializing in private securities investments.

David is the founder and president of Saveyour Capital Inc, a financial consulting firm providing research, marketing, and education of digital asset financial services.

David's previous experience includes over 20 years as the founder and president of David McConico & Company (DBA: McConico Investment Management Corporation), an asset development firm specializing in asset management and business management consulting services.

David spent four years with the Internal Revenue Service as a revenue agent gaining experience as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and obtaining exposure to income taxes and value creation for partnerships and business ventures, in the examination of business, corporate and partnership income tax returns.

Additional experience gained includes as an accountant with the Security Assistance Accounting Center (Department of Defense Agency).

David holds a BS degree in Accounting and an MBA in Finance both from the University of Colorado at Denver. He also holds a Master of Divinity from Iliff School of Theology.

David holds a DACFP Certificate in Blockchain and Digital Assets.