

Bob Noyes

Bob Noyes is the Program Specialist and assists with curriculum and program development for the FEET Center, and provides course instruction training. Mr. Noyes has over twenty years of teaching experience, with math being his primary course of instruction. Bob holds a BS in accounting, an MBA in Education (Curriculum and Instruction), and his Mathematics Teaching Certificate. Mr. Noyes authored a study on “Accomplishing Financial Literacy for Graduating Seniors in High School” and taught a Personal Finance a part of an elective math class (of primarily disadvantaged and underserved students) for Aurora Public Schools before retiring in 2016.